

USA Ultimate Triple Crown Tour Event Bid Form

Thank you for your interest in hosting a USA Ultimate Triple Crown Tour Event! The USA Ultimate Triple Crown Tour relies on local volunteers to help promote and facilitate tournaments across the country. Your tournament will be a milestone on the road to the USA Ultimate Postseason Championship Series, a great playing experience for teams, and an opportunity to promote the sport at its best.

Event Types

Teams in the Triple Crown Tour are divided into 4 flights (Pro, Elite, Select, and Classic), based on performance from the prior year's Postseason. See Appendix 1 for a breakdown of the different events that make up the Regular Season and Postseason. All events must meet the USA Ultimate Sanctioning Program event requirements. NOTE: USA Ultimate policy prohibits the hosting of its major national championship events in states that have current anti-transgender sports laws that restrict participation of transgender athletes to the division that matches their sex assigned at birth, rather than their gender identity. Other USA Ultimate-owned and sanctioned events which are not considered major national championships (i.e., Triple Crown Tour events, High School State Championships, sectional and regional championships, college and club regular season events, etc.) are all governed by USA Ultimate's Gender Inclusion Policy and Code of Conduct. If a state passes a new anti-trans sports law(s) after an event bid has been awarded and a letter of intent or contract has been signed, the event will not be moved from that event location. Additional efforts to show support for LGBTQ+ athletes will be made during the event.

- Pro and Elite Flight & Select Flight Invite Events - Teams in the top two flights, Pro and Elite, represent the top 16 teams in the country, based on their finish at Nationals. These teams are required to attend specific regular season events, which are bid out to event organizers and selected by USA Ultimate (see Appendix 1). Top-Select Flight teams (the teams that lost their respective games to go to Nationals) will be required to attend the Select Flight Invite or the Elite-Select Challenge. This bid document is used for bidding on those events.
- Other Regular Season Sanctioned Events - Organizers interested in hosting other events that will be part of the Triple Crown Tour regular season must apply through the tournament sanctioning process (this bid document is not needed for those events). The Tour is largely composed of these independent events, which provide local, regional, and national playing opportunities to teams at all levels. There are no specific requirements for teams or formats for these events. Any event is eligible to apply to be part of the Triple Crown Tour Regular Season. Learn how to apply by contacting sanctioning@hq.usultimate.org.

Tournament Sanctioning Expectations

All Triple Crown Tour regular season events are also part of the USA Ultimate Sanctioned Event Program. As such, organizers that accept the responsibilities of hosting one of these Triple Crown Tour events should also expect the requirements of tournament sanctioning to be in place, including Provisions and Amenities and Health and Safety. There are additional requirements and benefits for major Triple Crown Tour regular season events, as outlined in this bid document. Please review this information before submitting your bid for the Triple Crown Tour. If your event is selected, then you will be expected to complete the tournament sanctioning application process accordingly. The significant changes to the tournament sanctioning process for the organizer of Triple Crown Tour Pro, Elite, and Select Flight Invite events will include the following:

1. The sanctioning fee is waived for major Triple Crown Tour events.
2. Team selection, registration, and rostering will be managed directly by USA Ultimate. USA Ultimate will assist the event organizer in communicating with the teams about the rostering process.
3. The schedule will be created and entered into the online event system by USA Ultimate staff. Organizers will not need to enter the schedule, but will be expected to assist with the process of scheduling and score reporting and ensure that all final results are posted.

4. USA Ultimate supports the inclusion of all marginalized communities in ultimate events and encourages intentional acts of support for underrepresented groups, including BIPOC attendees and the LGBTQ+ community. Possible examples include:
- a) Sharing inclusive language in event materials and encouraging use of gender-neutral language.
  - b) Reminding participants of expectations outlined in the USA Ultimate Code of Conduct and providing a contact to report any concerning activity or behavior.
  - c) Utilizing minority-owned businesses as your event's vendors.
  - d) Ensuring access to gender-neutral restrooms.
  - e) Displaying flags supportive of marginalized communities, such as Black Lives Matter, Pride, Pride Progress or Transgender inclusion flags.
  - f) Partnering with a local community outreach organization, including for fundraisers or potentially offering them free space to table at your event.

X. Sponsorship and Merchandising

I have read and understand the following Sponsorship and Merchandising rights and responsibilities:

Yes  No

- Any and all contractual agreements relating to sponsorship and merchandising of the Event must be coordinated and approved by USA Ultimate. As such, the organizer is not required to secure sponsors for the Event, but is encouraged to provide information to USA Ultimate about relationships which organizers may already have with companies with a strong history of supporting ultimate or athletic events in their community.
- Event organizers are not required to secure an official merchandise partner for the event. However, all event organizers must communicate their intent on securing a merchandise partner for the event as part of the bid process. In the event that the organizer does not intend on engaging a merchandiser, USA Ultimate shall retain the right to do so and shall retain all of the revenues associated with said merchandise. At a minimum, observers should have their travel & lodging expenses (if needed) paid as well as receive meals while working games. Other benefits may be provided at your discretion. Please factor in your anticipated costs for observers into your budget projections.

Tournaments selected as Triple Crown Tour Events will receive organizational and recruiting assistance from the USA Ultimate Observer Program, including assignment of a head observer for the event.
